RE: Mitchell Davis

Dear Judge Sippel:

I have been acquainted with Dr. Mitchell Davis for more than 10 years. He has at all times merited my admiration both personally and professionally. I have known him to treat indigent patients in need of treatment, for free. He is confident in his healing skills, treats patients as individuals, and approaches each case with a determination to significantly reduce or overcome the particular ailment. He has repeat business and his patients seem to trust him.

Mitchell Davis is a devoted husband and father. He has a new baby, in which he delights, and he enjoys that fatherly "hero status" in the eyes of his other two children; (one boy and one girl). His son just graduated from law school and his daughter is currently attending high school. I understand that Dr. Mitchell Davis has been charged with criminal violations and that he has accepted responsibility for same. I however hold Dr. Davis in high regard and can attest that the community benefits from his presence and activity in it. I am especially moved to know that he reached out to help those who cannot help themselves.

I thank you Judge for your close attention and consideration to this case.

Sincerely,

William E. Sorrell
